

WAYS TO # COMMUNICATE

WITH STUDENTS

FOR ALL CAMPUS DEPARTMENTS

Promoting a new event or program for students can be overwhelming. Here are a few ways Student Affairs can help you share your information across campus.

SCREENS IN THE STUDENT CENTER

- 11 television screens are located inside the Melton Student Center.
- For design specifications and to submit a request, visit aub.ie/reserve\_advertise.

SCREENS IN THE RESIDENCE HALLS

- There are television screens located in all 30 residence halls.
- For design specifications and to submit a request, visit aub.ie/housingdigitalsignage.

BULLETIN BOARDS

- 150 bulletin boards are available in buildings across campus. If provided with posters, Student Affairs will hang them on these bulletin boards.
- For design specifications and to submit a request, visit aub.ie/reserve\_advertise.

BANNERS ON THE CONCOURSE

- There are banner pole stations along the concourses, including at the Melton Student Center, Haley Center and Foy Hall.
- For design specifications and to submit a request, visit aub.ie/reserve\_advertise.

BANNERS AROUND CAMPUS

- The University Career Center provides 24 pole stations across campus.
- For design specifications and to submit a request, contact the University Career Center at 334-844-4744.

AUINVOLVE - AUBURN.EDU/AUINVOLVE

- This online platform receives more than 2 million views each year.
- Any Auburn department and program can create its own page with events and announcements or submit a story to the Latest News page. To learn more, email involve@auburn.edu.

* Each department is responsible for printing materials, but all services listed above are free.

STUDENT AFFAIRS MARKETING

samarketing@auburn.edu

STUDENT AFFAIRS